

Further decimation of the few remaining media ownership rules would be an irrevocable act of desecration against our sacred democracy. Please consider the total weight of the actions you are about to take, with the public airwaves, on behalf of the public trust. Thank you. Sincerely concerned citizen, John Mulgrew